

Yale
School of Architecture
Open
House

Yale School of Architecture
invites all those interested in our Graduate
Architecture
Programs
to an
Open House.

The day's program
offers opportunities to tour the School's facilities and the University's campus,
visit classes and
studios, meet informally with faculty and students, and attend the School's evening public lecture delivered by Glen Murcutt,
William Henry Bishop
Visiting Professor.
